Customer Reviews

A quick Google of the case name returned the #1 search hit of "Facts and Case Summary - Texas v. Johnson" at the official uscourts site, a dot gov site. The summary there, believe it not, is far more interesting and detailed: "Gregory Lee Johnson burned an American flag outside of the convention center where the 1984 Republican National Convention was being held in Dallas, Texas. Johnson burned the flag to protest the policies of President Ronald Reagan. He was arrested and charged with violating a Texas statute that prevented the desecration of a venerated object, including the American flag, if such action were likely to incite anger in others. A Texas court tried and convicted Johnson. He appealed, arguing that his actions were "symbolic speech" protected by the First Amendment. The Supreme Court agreed to hear his case." Since this one page "book" was free, I don't have to return it for a refund.
