Customer Reviews

I am very impressed with this edition. Once again Alfred has done a excellent job. Following the Palmer ideal, Schneider has done extensive research and includes the edits in grey to distinguish from the original Bach. Some of the edits are superfluous - a musician with a half a brain would do them naturally - but overall this edition does a great job of presenting Bach's intent and if nothing else provide a relief from the cluttered mess of a Schirmer edition.

IF you're looking for french suits, this is probably the book you're looking for. Legible, well written annotations and many different suggestions for different ways to interpret the songs, and the different versions Bach wrote are all included depending on what you want to draw from. Nice fingerings, too. I really enjoyed playing from this book, and I'm happy to have it in my library.

The editor has done an exceptional job of editing these Bach French Suites. A wonderful edition for someone needing help with Bach.
