God's Miracle Among Corruption In Idaho

Synopsis

This book is a true, documented account of a single mother's fight for her child's basic human rights in Idaho Falls, Idaho. Her daughter was only 13-years-old when she was struck by tragedy. No, it was not a gunshot wound, nor a car crash, but a preventable medical error. She is raising her voice for all those who have experienced a similar tragedy. Preventable medical errors strikes millions each year. No one knows whose name will be added to the list tomorrow. It could be you. What is worse than medical negligence? The injustice. This book gives a disturbing account of what goes on behind the scenes where justice has no voice.

Customer Reviews

Due to the heart wrenching nature of this book, it is difficult to get through. This book is nothing short of a roller coaster ride of emotions. Unless you are not human, you will feel anger, disbelief, frustration, helplessness, joy, hope and faith. Veverly has bravely shared her and her family's tragedy turned to joy through God's s miracle. She has courageously relived this scenario countless times in a hope that others may become aware of the disregard some have for others whether in the medical field or other areas of life. This book reinforces my belief to question authority and trust God. May God continue to bless and protect Veverly and Robyn. Those who commit such egregious crimes and cover ups as those apparently committed by the powers that be in the Idaho community she describes will have an accounting day. This book is a must read for everyone.

Please read Veverly's book about her daughter disabled due to a medicine. The doctor and the lawyer in Idaho Falls that Veverly discusses what the did wrong should have to pay a price for what they did. Due to me with a law degree having lost 7 centimeters of the brain due to passing out as a result of a medicine, it means the world to me that Veverly has published this book so others too can understand what a nightmare it is for those of us disabled due to medical companies, doctors & lawyers that don't have good hearts.

Very interesting reading. My heart and prayers go out to the family and Lord have mercy on the corrupted individuals.
