Customer Reviews

Most of these casenote briefs suck, they don't seem to really match up with what the book is trying to convey. Of all the ones I've had during my law school career, this is by far the best. Gets the point that the book is trying to make on the rules across clearly and succinctly while also providing enough for context.

For those semesters where there are simply too many cases to read and too little time to allocate to do so...

Great book, the owner shipped it quickly and the book was very clean, thank you.

Good summary of the accompanying cases (Park and Friedman 12th ed.)

Great, buy this book
