Knights Of The Apocalypse (A Duck & Cover Adventure Post-Apocalyptic Series Book 2)

Synopsis

The end of the world as you've never known it. A price on their heads has driven Jerry the post-apocalyptic nomadic warrior, Erica and their loyal mastiff west in search of a new beginning. But when their truck breaks down in what was once southern Colorado they are swept into an epic quest at the behest of King Elias, ruler of the Kingdom of the Five Peaks. On their quest they will meet old friends and new foes, mutant cannibals, savage mountain men, fearsome knights and much, much more. Powered by gold and driven by steam, the kingdom has risen from the ashes of the apocalypse into a realm of prosperity and relative peace. The king has offered them a new start within the walls of the kingdom. But is the prize worth it? The adventure that began in the best-selling novel, Post-Apocalyptic Nomadic Warriors, continues here in Knights of the Apocalypse.

Customer Reviews

I got a free copy of this book from Mr Wallace for an honest review. But it is the third in the series so I bought Post-Apocalyptic Nomadic Warriors and Knights of the Apocalypse and read those so it would all make sense. What a week. I loved all three books. I like funny and irreverent but it is all somewhat plausible. So I was very entertained. The beginning rant is spot on. As a species we are hell bent on our own destruction. Mr. Wallace just makes it funny. The Librarian makes the best of the situation and always helps people at his own expense. I think we would all like to think that's the way we would be. Most of us would be hiding in a cave chewing on twigs. Even after the apocalypse though Texas still has steaks. I knew I loved living in Texas for a reason. So Jerry and Chewy(the dog) are still chasing Mr. Christopher and trying to get Erica back. The survivors he runs into, Willie and Coy, are the kind of rednecks that seem to be everywhere. They survive because they don't overthink anything. But they are not the true scary ones. It's the inhabitants of the city of Tolerance that are scary. Tolerance will be strictly enforced. And to ensure freedom for all, freedom enforcement officers will enforce the rules. I did like some of the approved opinions. Puppy's and kittens are nice and monkeys are deemed offensive. Any mention of monkeys or any other primate is prohibited. I hate monkeys. also the world is better off without Nickleback. But break the rules and you be sentenced to "pay your fair share".The librarian has to fight through Willie and Coy, a motorcycle cycle gang, a bunch of crazys from inviticus and the skimmers. The skimmers scare the crap out of me. You will discover that they are scaryer than most things in the apocalypse.
